BLUE RHINO WELCOMES DANNY THURMOND

Assumes National Account Manager Role

WINSTON-SALEM, NC (July 13, 2018) – Blue Rhino (www.BlueRhino.com) announced today that Danny Thurmond has joined Blue Rhino as a National Account Manager for its industry-leading propane exchange brand.

Thurmond comes to Blue Rhino from Contour Products, where he worked as a department head and National Account Manager, and oversaw all key elements of international and domestic customer relations. Prior to that, he worked for Reynolds American, Inc. as a Key Account Manager for the Santa Fe Natural Tobacco brand. A graduate of UNC-Wilmington, Danny resides with his family in Greensboro, N.C.

“We are excited to have Danny on board,” said Mark Tucker, Senior VP of Sales. “Danny has worked with many of our customers before and knows the retail business. He will be a great addition to our team.”

Blue Rhino – named for the color of a propane flame and the endangered animal – helps create special moments in backyards, patios and homes across America through its family of products, which includes the number one brand in tank exchange plus unique barbecue accessories, grills, and firepits. Blue Rhino is a brand of Ferrellgas, L.P. For more information on Blue Rhino's full product line-up, visit www.BlueRhino.com.
