Mockups 4 You Opens New Facility in Franklin, Wisconsin to Support Growth & Innovation

Franklin, WI — April 10th, 2026 — Mockups 4 You is excited to announce the opening of its new facility in Franklin, Wisconsin. It marks an important step in the company's 3-year history & the growth that has been achieved.

The 5500 square foot facility will allow Mockups 4 You to increase production capacity and better serve its ever-growing customer base. The facility is designed to improve efficiency while creating room for future expansion.

Day-to-day operations at the Franklin location will be managed by the company's current Wisconsin-based team, ensuring continuity and consistent service. Arne Sandberg, President & owner along with his wife, Jill Sandberg, VP of Marketing & Owner, will continue to oversee the business and guide its overall direction.

"This new facility will help us keep up with demand while staying focused on quality and service," said Heather Tetzlaff of Mockups 4 You.

The expansion will also support local job growth to ensure they stay within their mission of helping individuals with good jobs and strengthening families. It will help strengthen the company's presence in the region and help keep the Sandbergs tied to their Wisconsin Roots.
