FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rutter’s is First to Have VGTs in Pennsylvania

The Central Pennsylvania Company has partnered with Marquee by Penn to bring Video Gaming Terminals to their Qualified Establishments in Pennsylvania

YORK, PA. August 16, 2019: Rutter’s announced that they have opened the first room for Video Gaming Terminals (VGTs), within a Qualified Establishment in Pennsylvania, at their 2125 Susquehanna Trail location in York County. Rutter’s, in conjunction with Marquee by Penn, a subsidiary of Penn National Gaming, Inc., plans to open 10+ VGT rooms in 2019, with more scheduled for 2020. In an industry that is always changing, Rutter’s strives to be at the forefront of innovative customer offerings.

“Rutter’s has evolved as a business over the years, from a dairy to convenience stores, from smokes and cokes to fuel and food service,” explains Scott Hartman, Rutter’s President and CEO. “We are constantly listening and learning from our customers, and VGTs are one example of our progressive model.”

Rutter’s also expects to open three more rooms at Qualified Establishments in Pennsylvania, within the coming month, at their Port Royal, Duncansville and West Manchester locations.

“We are excited to partner with Rutter’s and combine our expertise with their established success in the convenience store industry,” said Jeff Morris, Vice President of Public Affairs for Penn National Gaming.

Locations licensed for VGTs will provide customers, 21 years of age and older, with five machines in a designated VGT room. Customers in the area will also be able to enjoy Rutter’s award-winning food and beverages, while playing. For more information about the company, visit www.rutters.com.
