Leramo Coffee Corporation Acquires Chauvin Coffee, a St. Louis Legacy Roaster

St. Louis, MO — 2/25/2026 — Leramo Coffee Corporation today announced the acquisition of Chauvin Coffee, a respected third-generation specialty coffee roaster based in St. Louis, Missouri. The partnership unites two companies with deep roots in quality coffee production and a shared commitment to craftsmanship and customer service.

Founded by Dave Charleville, father of current owners Mike Charleville and surviving spouse Yvonne Charleville. Chauvin Coffee has built a longstanding reputation for excellence in specialty coffee roasting, serving cafes, restaurants, and retailers throughout the Midwest. Under the new ownership, Mike Charleville will continue in leadership roles to ensure a seamless transition and preserve the tradition and expertise that have defined Chauvin Coffee for decades.

“We are proud to welcome Chauvin Coffee into the Leramo family,” said Bob LeGrand, CEO of Leramo Coffee Corporation. “Their dedication to quality, consistency, and community aligns perfectly with our mission to deliver exceptional coffee experiences. Together, we’re building on a legacy of excellence while expanding our capabilities for the future.”

Eric LeGrand, Vice President of Operations for Leramo Coffee Corporation, added, “This acquisition strengthens our ability to serve our customers with a broader range of specialty coffee offerings while continuing to uphold the standards of quality and integrity both companies are known for.”

“We’re excited about what this partnership means for the future of Chauvin Coffee,” said Mike Charleville. “Leramo shares our values and passion for roasting exceptional coffee. This step allows us to continue our family’s legacy while expanding our reach and resources to better serve our customers.

The acquisition enhances Leramo Coffee Corporation’s production capacity and broadens its product portfolio, reinforcing its position as a leader in the specialty coffee industry. Customers can expect continued excellence in product quality, customer service, and innovative coffee solutions.
