Rutter’s Announces 2019 Secret Santa Program
Rutter’s Children’s Charities to donate $50,000 for 2019 Secret Santa

YORK, PA. 12/3/2019: Rutter’s is excited to announce the details of their annual Secret Santa Program. Each year, Rutter’s chooses employees to reward based on their excellent performance with $1,000 to donate to the charity of their choice. In 2019, Rutter’s Children’s Charities will be donating $50,000, giving 50 employees from Rutter’s stores and corporate office a chance to help out their community.

“Our goal with the Secret Santa Program has been to give our employees a chance to give back to their community during the holiday season,” stated Scott Hartman, Rutter’s CEO. “Donating to local programs and charities is always top of mind for us. This program is our way of supporting causes that our employees feel connected to, in the area.”

The Secret Santa program began in 2016 as a way for Rutter’s to continue their charitable giving through the holiday season. Giving back to the communities, in which Rutter’s operates, is an important part of their charitable mission. Since its 2016 inception, the Secret Santa program has grown every year, and it has donated over $130,000 to various local charities.
