

About StrasGlobal

StrasGlobal is the leading provider of contract operations for gas stations and convenience stores around the country. Drawing on their 60-year heritage as innovators in convenience and small-format site management around the world, StrasGlobal offers their services to retail locations for companies who for various reasons don't have the expertise, infrastructure or desire to operate them. They offer turn-key retail operations and management across the board including administration and financial, store operations from staffing to marketing and merchandising to foodservice, and vendor negotiations and fuel management. Strasglobal is currently operating 26 locations across six states with plans to expand.
