Dover Fueling Solutions Appoints New Senior Leaders to Drive Digital Transformation Strategy

Industry and Technology Leaders Tormollen and James Join DFS

AUSTIN, TEXAS – February 13, 2020 – Dover Fueling Solutions \(“DFS”\), a part of Dover Corporation and a leading global provider of advanced customer-focused technologies, services and solutions in the fuel and convenience retail industries, is pleased to announce that, as part of its commitment to support fuel and convenience retailers’ digital transformation efforts through cutting-edge DFS solutions, the organization has added two new senior leaders to its DFS Solutions business.

Matt Tormollen, newly appointed DFS Vice President and General Manager of DFS Solutions, has joined the business bringing extensive industry experience and technology knowledge. With more than 20 years in strategic executive leadership roles, he has held positions leading global research and development for Avalara and serving as President and CEO of FuelQuest. His deep experience in the strategy, execution and marketing aspects of SaaS businesses combined with his success in forming strategic partnerships will be invaluable to DFS in pursuit of its digital transformation. Tormollen holds a Bachelor of Science in information systems management from the University of Maryland.

DFS also welcomes Matt James, Senior Director of Product Marketing for the DFS Solutions business.

He joins DFS from his recent role as Director of Global Sales and Marketing for Emerson. He brings to DFS a considerable career history, spanning leadership roles in sales and marketing, program management, business development and key account management, and an early career in software development. James holds a Master of Business Administration from the University of Minnesota, Carlson School of Management, and a Bachelor of Science in computer engineering from Iowa State University.

“Matt Tormollen and Matt James are welcome additions to our Dover Fueling Solutions team and DFS Solutions, and I am delighted to have their caliber of leadership at the forefront of this critical growth business component for our customers and for DFS,” said DFS President David Crouse. “We look forward to having their energy, creativity and vast expertise on board for this next phase of our company’s tenured history.”
