The NACS European Convenience Retail Awards recognise outstanding achievements in the European retail community. For more than 10 years, this programme continues to be a high point for retailers, industry experts and suppliers who gather each June at the NACS Convenience Summit Europe to recognise and celebrate industry success and innovation.

The awards provide one of the greatest benchmarks of global convenience retailing excellence. Over the years, entrants from multiple European countries and diverse types of convenience format and company sizes have participated. The competition is rigorous and the benefits of participation are numerous.

Demonstrate to your peers, partners and customers the innovation and creativity found within your business. Boost your team morale and reward them for their hard work and dedication. Enter the NACS European Convenience Retail Awards today and celebrate with us—and the leadership of the most innovative convenience retailers across the globe—at the awards dinner on 4 June 2020.

What are the European Convenience Retail Awards?
The European Convenience Retail Awards recognise and promote convenience retailing excellence in Europe, and provide retailers with the opportunity to showcase their innovation and creativity to the global retailing community.

Who are our judges?
Each year, the international Grand Jury is comprised of leading global convenience retailers, business and industry experts from NACS, subject matter experts, and representatives from the NACS International Board of Directors, which include leaders from well-known retail brands such as FreshStop, Migrolino, Shell and 7-Eleven as well as supplier leaders from Coca-Cola, Mondelēz, and BAT.

Who can enter?
Convenience and fuel retailers from European countries may submit entries. (Supplier partners and advertising, design and PR agencies are welcome to submit entries on behalf of their retail partners, but they must have the approval of the retailer for which they provide services.)

What do I recieve if I win?
Whether you win or are one of our esteemed participants, you will receive unparalleled global exposure through trade, national and international press and television. In addition to elevating your brand profile on the international stage winners will receive:

+ Recognition in NACS and and Insight Research print and digital publications, which collectively reach an audience of more than 50,000 global retailers.

+ Complimentary 2020 NACS Show registration for up to 3 employees from the winner’s company. (The NACS Show is in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA) *travel is not included

+ Recognition in the International Club at the NACS Show.

+ And most importantly, celebrating your victory with global retailers and suppliers as well as your colleagues at the Awards Dinner in Berlin on Thursday 4 June 2020!
International Convenience Retailer of the Year

Our globally recognised honour recognises the most innovative and successful international convenience and petroleum retail store of the year. The winner earns the accolade of “the best convenience store in the world.” This award honours flagship stores that break new ground and set new innovative standards for the industry. All-sized businesses can enter and entries can refer to broader initiatives or format roll-outs in a wider business.

Judging Criteria
The following will be considered by the Grand Jury in evaluating each submission:

+ Format Innovation
  Do you have a new concept that is redefining your offer?

+ Technology, Loyalty, and Payment Systems
  What innovations have you implemented that make your consumers’ lives simpler?

+ Range
  Have you developed new growth categories and services?

+ People Development
  How do you engage and train your employees? Have you had success in “best place to work” awards?

+ Customer Service Initiatives
  Can you demonstrate measured improvement in customer service focus and performance?

+ Results
  Do you have clear performance indicators for the store, including customer growth, basket size, sales growth and future plans for roll-out. (Information will be treated with confidentiality and only shared with our judging panel.)

Entry Information
Successful entries will focus on one particular store as the central showpiece. The store you highlight from your company portfolio should best exemplify excellence across the judging criteria. Concepts and future locations will not be considered.

The following materials must be submitted

+ PDF presentation summary of criteria \ 10-12 slides
+ High-res quality photos of the store \ 10 - 20 photos
+ Video footage of the store \ 5 - 10 Minutes

Profiles could be featured on NACS media platforms. Entrants will have the opportunity to approve materials prior to publication.

European Convenience Industry Leader of the Year

Industry progress is not only driven by innovative companies, but by the energies, determination and inspiration of the individuals who lead them. This award recognises and honours the contribution of the most successful and influential European convenience industry leader of 2020.

Entry Information
Suppliers or retailers can nominate a Convenience Industry Leader of 2020. In the confidential submission, supporting evidence must be provided, detailing why they are nominating a certain individual and articulating that person’s impact on the industry. Our Grand Jury Panel will follow up on all nominations, assessing the merits of each, before awarding a winner.

Achievements could cover the following areas:
+ Overall results: How has the retailer transformed his or her business?
+ Innovation: How has the leader delivered innovation?
+ Inspiration: What is it about this individual’s management style and personality that has made him or her so effective?
+ Industry support: How has this individual also supported and contributed to the development of our industry?
