

U.S. Convenience Stores Give Back

U.S. convenience stores collect or contribute $1.03 billion to charities annually

MORE THAN 95%
of c-stores donate
to charities

The median charitable contribution per store is $3,925 in direct contributions and $3,054 in donations collected.

66%

support
five or more local charities

75%

collected donations in response to a specific emergency or community crisis

91%

support
local charitable groups

47%

support
national charitable
groups

(Source: September 2018 NACS retailer survey)

NACS

The U.S. convenience store industry, with 155,000 stores nationwide selling fuel, food and merchandise, serves 165 million customers daily—half of the U.S. population. Learn more at convenience.org.