

Dear _____,

I am very pleased to invite you to do business with my firm, Maketogo Trading Co. Ltd., in China. My business has prospered through its relationship with NACS and I believe that NACS can bring compelling value for many years to Chinese convenience and fuel retailing companies. It will be very important for you and your NACS colleagues to visit China on a regular basis to meet with my clients, informing them of the many NACS resources that are available to them.

For documentary purposes I am confirming your personal information as follows:

I invite you to come to Shanghai to meet with me and my company along with Chinese convenience and fuel retailers including executives from PetroChina and Sinopec, to share global industry trends with them, review NACS resources, and begin planning for an Asian convenience and fuels retailing conference in Shanghai in March 2019. I understand that you will be arriving to Shanghai on 4 March from _____ and returning to _____ on 8 March and that you will be paying for all your transportation and lodging expenses while in China. I believe your visit will further deepen the consulting relationship that I have had with NACS for many years and strengthen my ability to represent NACS in China.

To confirm my company's information:
